VIRGINIA VOTERS BACK TOUGHER ABORTION RULES,
QUINNIPIAC UNIVERSITY POLL FINDS;
GOV. McDONNELL'S 3-1 APPROVAL IS ONE OF BEST SCORES

By an overwhelming 55 – 22 percent, Virginians support a new law requiring abortion clinics to be regulated like hospitals, according to a Quinnipiac University poll released today.

Gov. Bob McDonnell, who backed the legislation, remains highly popular with a 61 – 21 percent job approval rating, matching New York Gov. Andrew Cuomo's 62 – 22 percent job approval as the best in states surveyed by the independent Quinnipiac (KWIN-uh-pe-ack) University.

There is virtually no gender gap as women support tougher regulation of abortion clinics 54 – 21 percent, while men back the measure 57 – 24 percent. Support is 62 – 12 percent among Republicans, 57 – 21 percent among independent voters and 47 – 34 percent among Democrats.

State health regulators are to vote Thursday on regulations implementing tougher abortion clinic standards that are popular even though by 50 – 41 percent Virginians say abortion should be legal in all or most cases. The Virginia Legislature, which gets a 48 – 34 percent approval rating, passed the law that abortion rights groups say is a back-door attempt to stop abortions in the state because most of the existing clinics cannot meet the structural requirements of the new law.

But 50 percent of registered voters see the new law as a way to safeguard women's health, while 33 percent see the law as unnecessary and an effort to put abortion clinics out of business. There is only a small gender gap on this question.

"There is strong support for the new abortion law among men and women. Opponents apparently have been unable to convince the electorate that this is an unwarranted back-door way to stop abortions," said Peter A. Brown, assistant director of the Quinnipiac University Polling Institute. "Even Democrats, by a plurality, support the measure."

Quinnipiac University Poll/September 14, 2011 – page 2

“Gov. Bob McDonnell’s approval numbers, up from 55 – 26 percent in a June 29 Quinnipiac University survey, are among the best in the country,” said Brown.

“Not only is he personally popular, but so too is his budget. Virtually every other governor in the country must be envious about Bob McDonnell’s numbers.”

Not surprisingly, Republicans approve of the governor 79 – 7 percent and independent voters approve 67 – 17 percent, while Democrats are divided 39 – 40 percent. Even black voters, historically a Democratic group, approve 46 – 32 percent, “a highly unusual finding for a Republican office-holder,” said Brown. White voters approve of the governor’s performance 67 – 18 percent.

Virginians say 56 – 14 percent they like McDonnell personally and by 52 – 26 percent say they like most of his policies. By 53 – 29 percent they approve of his handling of the state budget, and say 55 – 31 percent that the budget is fair to people like them.

Asked about control of the State Legislature that will be determined by this November’s elections, 25 percent would like both houses controlled by Democrats; 25 percent want the Republicans in control and 43 percent say they want the current split control to continue.

Virginia voters are generally happy with their political leaders. Giving all their statewide elected political figures positive job approval ratings:

- U.S. Sen. Mark Warner is at 64 – 22 percent, the highest approval of any statewide official;
- U.S. Sen. Jim Webb gets 51 – 30 percent;
- Lt. Gov. Bill Bolling has a 39 – 15 percent approval;
- Attorney General Ken Cuccinelli scores 47 – 29 percent.

From September 6 – 12, Quinnipiac University surveyed 1,368 registered voters with a margin of error of +/- 2.7 percentage points. Live interviewers call land lines and cell phones.

The Quinnipiac University Poll, directed by Douglas Schwartz, Ph.D., conducts public opinion surveys in Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Florida, Ohio, Virginia and the nation as a public service and for research.

27. The new rules are the product of a new law in Virginia that reclassified abortion clinics as hospital facilities. According to the new regulations, all abortion clinics and physician offices providing abortions would have to meet specific building and safety requirements that until now, have only been required of hospitals; such as 250-square-foot operating rooms and specific ventilation systems. Do you approve or disapprove of this change that would require the state's abortion clinics to be regulated like hospitals or don't you know?

28. Supporters of this proposed change say it is needed to safeguard the health of women who get abortions; Opponents say the changes are mainly expensive structural changes and are just an effort to force many clinics who cannot afford them out of business.
 Which comes closer to your view:
 These changes are necessary to improve women's health, OR
 These changes are not necessary and are designed to put abortion clinics out of business
